

Deadline Extended for Proposals!

Call for Proposals

Breakout Sessions

G-CASE Fall Conference- Specialized Leadership for Special Times

Nov. 16-18, 2011

Savannah Riverfront Marriott

The GA Council of Administrators of Special Education (G-CASE) is accepting proposals for a limited number of breakout session presentations at the G-CASE Fall Conference November 16-18 at the Savannah Riverfront Marriott. We are especially seeking proposals on effective leadership practices for improving the achievement of students with disabilities and proposals that describe steps to developing and implementing successful programs. Proposals are to be submitted to Dr. Emily Collins, G-CASE Executive Director, no later than August 15-31, 2011. Proposals should be emailed to ecollins@gael.org. If you have any questions contact Emily Collins at this email address or call 229-886-9359.

Title of Proposal:

Summary of Proposal (100 words or less): (attach additional pages to this proposal if needed)

Major Objectives of the Proposed Breakout Session:

Target Audience:

Name of Person Submitting this Proposal:

Position:

Address:

Email:

Phone:

Name (s), Position (s) and email addresses of All Other Presenters:

Presenters need to know they are expected to register for the conference and attend if their proposal is accepted for presentation. Presenters will be asked to provide electronic copies of presentations one month prior to the conference so presentations may be placed on a conference flash drive. If presenters want those who attend their session to have a hard copy of any handouts, they should bring the hard copies to the session. Presenters are expected to furnish their own laptops and projectors. Screens, power strips, tables, chairs and podium will be provided as needed.

Breakout session proposals are to be submitted to Dr. Emily Collins, G-CASE Executive Director, @ ecollins@gael.org no later than August 15 31, 2011. If you have questions, contact Dr. Collins at this email address or by calling her @ 229-886-9359.